

6/09 NOTICE OF POTENTIAL TEMPORARY SHUTDOWN OF ARIZONA BOARD OF APPRAISAL. The Arizona Board of Appraisal will be closed temporarily effective July 1, 2009, in the event that the Governor and Legislature do not have a State budget for fiscal year 2010 in place on or before midnight, June 30, 2009. The agency shutdown will be part of a statewide shutdown of Arizona government. Partial staff for some State agencies such as the Department of Public Safety will remain available to provide essential state services to ensure public health and safety.

The Arizona Board of Appraisal will reopen once a State budget for fiscal year 2010 has been approved.

The temporary agency closure will become effective only in the event that the Governor and Legislature do not have a State budget for Fiscal Year 2010 in place on or before midnight, June 30, 2009.
